B- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

The Sadu House is a beautiful, traditional Kuwaiti house where visitors can discover the Bedouin traditional art, its styles, and history. It is located next to the National Museum of Kuwait, which has been converted into a cultural centre, with the old museum building redesigned to host events and cultural activities.

Visitors can walk around and learn about the history of weaving and the metalworks. Also, there is a gift store that shows traditional weavings by local artists. There are many rugs and home furniture items to buy. The centre encourages people to take a close look at the beautiful nature-inspired art form "Sadu" and to learn how to create magnificent pieces with designs that showcase the Bedouin lifestyle.

A group of Kuwaitis founded the Sadu House because they were interested in protecting the heritage and history of the Bedouin people and the Sadu weaving. In 1991, it turned into a centre called "Al Sadu Weaving Society" to preserve the traditional arts of Kuwait. There are different rooms for different purposes, and the most interesting place is the courtyard, where presentations and other events are held.
