- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Last year, I was flying home from Chicago after a business trip. I was so excited to return to my family after being away for a month. I got to the airport early to wait for my flight. It was a bright, sunny morning as the plane took off. After about three minutes, I noticed something very scary. There was a big fire in the wing of the plane. Everyone on the plane was very nervous.

The flight attendant said we would land soon and asked the woman standing with her mother and little daughter to sit down immediately. Then, she told us the landing would be hard and advised us to brace ourselves and hold on tight. She looked very brave, but her face looked worried. I tried not to be afraid when there was a loud noise. The plane had hit something. I found out later that it was the river.

There was another passenger next to me who seemed very shocked and confused. I held her hand and pulled her with me towards the emergency exit. The next thing I knew, we stood on the wing looking at the river. When the rescue boat stopped to take us to the shore, I thanked the rescue team for saving my life.
